Does your evidence relate to a particular period of time?

No

If yes, what period?:

Does your evidence relate to a particular event or activity?

No

If yes, please explain what the event / activity was.:

We are particularly interested in:• How you found out about what was happening, and how informed you were throughout the project• What did you think would happen• What actually happened• What were the effects if any, on you (or your organisation) at the time of the project•

What if any, were the on-going or longer-term effects on you (or your organisation). Please write your evidence here.

We are particularly interested in:

As an interested resident I had hoped that local councillors would have been more active in providing details on concerns that were raised regularly in the press - where I got my information. Local community outlets - such as community councils could have been one place to provide information - but I did not receive any information about the effects of the tram from my local community council.

The long term impact on the residents of Edinburgh including myself are really not known - in particular the long term financial costs. There is no clarity on the financial impact of the trams for ordinary people. That has been the big problem with this project. The citizens are sidelined due the complexity of the process and lack of transparency.
