Dear Trams Enquiry,

I would like to submit the attached as evidence of what has been going wrong at Edinburgh Council.

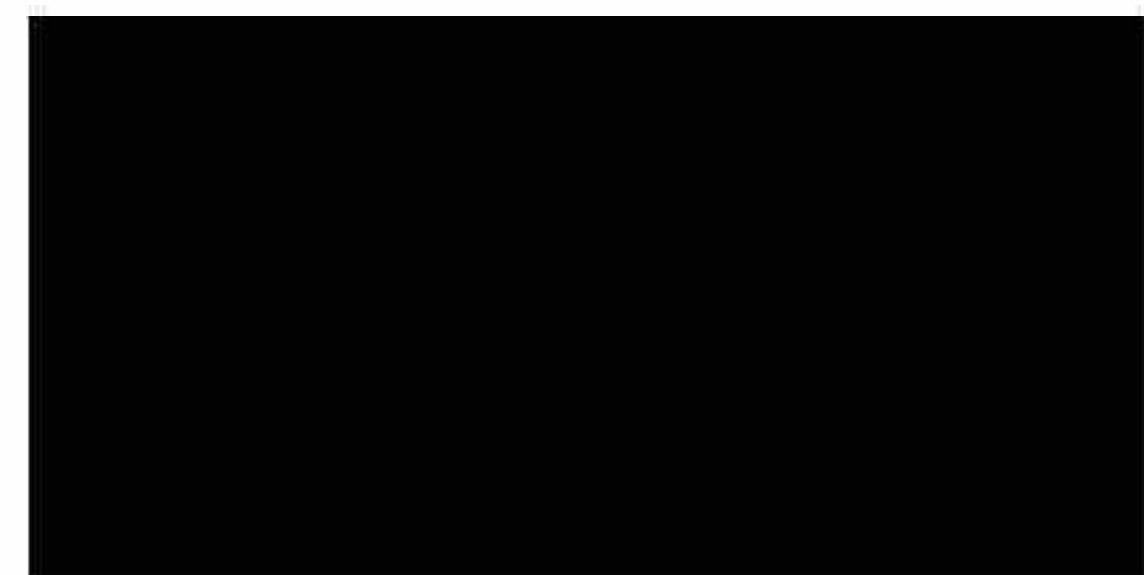

You will be pleased to know that the problem has been fixed- the Council eventually agreed to a whistleblowers hotline- which has proven to be a great success.

See attached press release.

There can NEVER be another tams disaster, because now systems are in place to protect staff (such as [REDACTED], a Council Transport Engineer who saw the whole thing was a disaster back in 2003, tried to raise his concerns, but was bullied out of his job). Ask [REDACTED] about it.

Yours sincerely,

Peter Gregson
