Profile:

A qualified accountant, I have over 30 years experience in public sector audit with the National Audit Office and Audit Scotland.

My current job title with Audit Scotland is Senior Manager Investment. As such, I am expected to be Audit Scotland's policy expert in all matters pertaining to public sector investment, including the management and funding of major capital projects and all matters transport. A key part of my role is to identify and oversee performance audits relevant to the investment portfolio.

My involvement in the Edinburgh trams performance audits in both 2007 and 2011 flows from being, at the time of the 2007 audit, Senior Manager, Transport, Enterprise and Lifelong Learning.
